

Academic
Language
Development
for All

Culminating Celebration of the ALD4ALL Project

Hyatt Regency Tamaya Resort & Spa, at the Santa Ana Pueblo | Cottonwood Pavilion

June 1, 2016 | 8:00AM-3:30PM

ALD4ALL Project Purpose:

To provide statewide teacher training and build the capacity of administrator leadership to address the needs and academic language development of culturally and linguistically diverse (CLD) students, including English Learners (ELs) in New Mexico.

Learning Objective:

- To share and learn from colleagues about the effective practices implemented in their bilingual multicultural education programs.

Agenda:

7:30 – 8:00 Shuttle Service to Cottonwood Pavilion

8:00 – 8:30 Sign-in/Breakfast

8:30 – 9:45 General Session

- ALD4ALL team will share project implementations, results, and implications
- ALD4ALL team will explain Open Space Protocol (See attached description of the protocol, key questions, and sessions)
- Open Space session facilitators will share their 'elevator speeches' (i.e. brief summaries) related to the topic or responses related to the questions with the group

9:45 – 11:45

- Select and participate in the Open Space talks/discussions

Luncheon 11:45 – 1:00

1:15 – 2:15 Poster Session

- Self-select one or two of several concurrent poster sessions related to ALD4ALL Effective Practices (See attached note-talking guide)

2:15 – 2:30 Break

2:30 – 3:30 General Session

- Recognitions
- Looking forward
- Closing Comments